

Quality

How are ways of checking how well things are doing (quality assurance systems) including the views of people with high individual support needs?